

Salt Lake City Trip: February 27 to March 13, 2018

Royal City Travel is pleased to handle travel arrangements for the 23rd Family Tree tour to Salt Lake City, Utah. The trip is coordinated by genealogical lecturer and teacher, Jane MacNamara, a long time member of the Ontario Genealogical Society. For more information, see: wherethestorytakesme.ca

ACCOMMODATION:

Located just 2 1/2 blocks from the Family History Library and Temple Square, the Carlton Hotel, built in the 1920s, is a friendly, 45-room hotel with free wi-fi, cable TV and a refrigerator in each unique room. A full breakfast (or continental if you prefer) is included. Our prices are based on either single or double rooms (as you specify). Van transportation to and from the Family History Library is provided free of charge.

YOUR TOUR PACKAGE INCLUDES:

- round trip airfare from Toronto*
- transportation to and from hotel in Salt Lake City
- accommodation for 7 or 14 nights* including breakfast
- a special group dinner
- introduction to the Family History Library
- walking tours to points of interest
- all applicable taxes

*NOTE: We are flexible! We can arrange for you to travel from a different airport and join the group in Salt Lake City. We can extend your stay beyond the 7 or 14 nights, or arrange for you to travel on to a different destination. Prices will vary. Please enquire.
